

Sons of The American Legion

7th District

June 7, 2010

To all members of The American Legion Family,

The 7th District Sons of The American Legion are pleased to announce their fundraiser for The Committee to Elect Fang A. Wong for National Commander of The American Legion in 2011-2012. The Fang A. Wong Benefit Golf Tournament takes place on Saturday September 25, 2010 at Winged Pheasant Golf Course in Shortsville, NY at 11:00 AM. The cost is $60 per player and includes 18 holes of golf with cart, lunch at the turn, door prizes and raffles, and a Prime Rib Dinner at Turner-Schrader American Legion Post #34 in Shortsville, NY. Our Special Guests at the Tournament will be 8 returning veterans from the War on Terrorism.

We are asking for your support, as you enjoy a great day of golf and fun with your fellow members of the Legion Family! Your participation will assist New York's first National Commander Candidate in nearly 30 years as he works towards leading the largest veterans service organization in the world!

So please mark your calendars now, and sign up your team for this special day! Hole sponsorships are also available for interested Posts, Units, and Squadrons.

For God and Country.
